

Tres Rios Nature and Earth Festival

Fact Sheet

Location: B&M Wildlife Area, owned by the Arizona Game and Fish Department, is located on the Gila River, adjacent to PIR (Phoenix International Raceway) in Avondale, five miles south of I-10 on Avondale Boulevard

Date: March 17-18, 2007

Times: 10 a.m. – 6:00 Saturday and 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 Sunday

Cost: FREE! Free entry and parking!

Information: www.tresriosnaturefestival.com on the Internet or call 623-204-2130.

Themes:

Wildlife and Fish, Bird watching, Outdoors, Environment, Environmental Actions, Hiking, Water Resources and Conservation, History of the Valley, Rivers, Habitat, Archeology, Solar Power, etc.

What is happening:

- Festival – with educational displays, music, food, kid activities, and programs
- Live Wildlife
- Free Fishing Clinic
- Hay Wagon Ride and Nature Trail
- Wildlife Watching - beginning Birding Classes
- Nature Talks
- Luke Air Force Base Earth Day celebration
- Recycling Programs and Fashion Show for kids!
- Free Canoe Float

Activities for visitors to the festival will be able to:

- Talk to experts about wildlife, the outdoors and the environment.
- Participate in a beginner's bird walk.
- Take busses to City of Phoenix Tres Rios Wetland Demonstration Area.
- Explore the booths of wildlife, water, historical and conservation organizations and environmental products and themes.
- Listen to local entertainers and sample a diverse food menu.
- Participate in a fishing clinic for kids and youths.
- Experience a children's area with hands-on crafts, live wildlife and activities, storytelling and more.

